Spaghetti
CLUB

The image shows the interior of a restaurant named 'Nonna's House'. On the left is a dark wood bar with shelves stocked with various bottles of wine and spirits. In the center, a dining area features tables with white tablecloths, set with glassware and plates. Black wooden chairs are tucked under the tables. A yellow tufted booth runs along the back wall, which is decorated with a collage of framed photographs. A brass chandelier hangs from the ceiling. To the right, a large window with a red frame looks out onto a city street. The overall atmosphere is warm and rustic.

THE VENUE

NONNA'S HOUSE

Inspired by the Sicilian roots of our co-founder Lucas's grandparents, who crossed oceans and built a life steeped in warmth, Sunday sauce, and a table always set for one more, we set out to bring that same spirit to Richmond.

We're not here to be traditional. We're here to be familiar. A little rustic, a little indulgent, and exactly what you need on a Tuesday night, or any night, really.
